ROP Committee – ICROP 3rd Edition

1. APROP and AROP
 - Recognition that there is a continuous spectrum to include stage 3 and Aggressive ROP (A-ROP) at either ends and these entities may not be distinct
2. ROP Regression
 - Detailed descriptions of regression and its sequelae, whether spontaneous or following laser and anti-VEGF treatment
3. ROP Reactivation
 - Categorization of reactivation following treatment.
4. Stage 5 – Further categorization of stage 5 ROP.
5. Persistent Avascular Retina and Vascular Anomalies
6. Intermediate Zone / Posterior Zone II / Notch
 - An intermediate zone at the margin between zone I and zone II that has proven important in determining the likely presence of more severe retinopathy.
7. Plus Disease Spectrum
 - Further categorization of the plus disease spectrum with sample images showing the continuum from normal vasculature to plus disease so permitting clinicians to stratify the risk of severe disease with enhanced/ greater precision

International Pediatric Ophthalmology & Strabismus Council

STOP INFANT BLINDNESS IN AFRICA
Stop Infant Blindness in Africa (SIBA) is a coalition of eye care professionals and patients working to end preventable blindness and childhood vision loss in sub-Saharan Africa. SIBA is currently the largest and most active coalition of its kind in the world. The coalition is currently focused on the following areas: 1. Eye Care Services: Improving access to eye care services, including eye examinations, eye drops, and eye surgery. 2. Eye Health Promotion: Educating the public about eye health and the importance of regular eye exams. 3. Eye Care Infrastructure: Improving the infrastructure of eye care services, including eye clinics and hospitals. 4. Eye Care Workforce: Training and supporting eye care professionals, including ophthalmologists, optometrists, and nurses. 5. Eye Care Research: Supporting research into the causes of blindness and the development of new treatments.

Children's Eye Foundation of AAPOS
The Children's Eye Foundation (CEF) was founded in 1970. It is formally affiliated with the American Association for Pediatric Ophthalmology and Strabismus (AAPOS), the most well-respected professional organization of pediatric ophthalmologists in the United States. The mission of CEF of AAPOS is to fund and promoteable vision loss and improve the lives of visually impaired children worldwide.

Children's Eye Foundation of AAPOS
Building transnational collaborations aimed to prevent, detect, and manage Retinopathy of Prematurity in sub-Saharan Africa.

International Pediatric Ophthalmology and Strabismus Council
The International Pediatric Ophthalmology and Strabismus Council (IPOSC) was formed to promote and restore eye health and binocularity in children worldwide. This global council includes representation from 82 national and international pediatric ophthalmology organizations worldwide, including member societies such as The American Association for Pediatric Ophthalmology and Strabismus (AAPOS), the International Strabismic Association (ISA), and the European Strabismus Association (ESA).

Why?
The impact of childhood blindness goes beyond the individual child. The deprivation of vision leads to a loss of social and educational opportunities, economic stability, and the ability to live a full and meaningful life. Childhood blindness is a global health crisis, with an estimated 36 million children affected worldwide. Many of these children live in sub-Saharan Africa, where access to eye care services is limited. The International Pediatric Ophthalmology and Strabismus Council (IPOSC) is a global coalition of pediatric ophthalmology organizations working to improve the lives of children with vision loss. IPOSC is currently focused on the following areas: 1. Eye Care Services: Improving access to eye care services, including eye examinations, eye drops, and eye surgery. 2. Eye Health Promotion: Educating the public about eye health and the importance of regular eye exams. 3. Eye Care Infrastructure: Improving the infrastructure of eye care services, including eye clinics and hospitals. 4. Eye Care Workforce: Training and supporting eye care professionals, including ophthalmologists, optometrists, and nurses. 5. Eye Care Research: Supporting research into the causes of blindness and the development of new treatments.

Now available helps stop SIBA!
For more information, visit the website: www.siba.org or www.aaapos.org

We must act now to stop it.

Our current efforts

1. Develop a list of fellowships worldwide (work with ICO).
2. Publish a list of available funding sources for education. (Still on going)
3. List observer-ships available worldwide (<3 months)
4. Establish a minimum curriculum for fellowships worldwide (work with ICO)
5. Facilitate electronic media as possible for practitioners using ORBIS, E-Consults, etc. as a model.
6. Encourage joint meetings among national and supra-national societies
7. Encourage other supra-national societies to sponsor travel grants to support underdeveloped countries to send members to scientific meetings
8. Create for pediatric ophthalmology and strabismus based on standards of care or Evidence-based medicine (EBM), or Evidence-based practice (EBP).
